Try(1)..... make your oral report too long. Include only the most important points. Work hard on your introduction and conclusion. These are what your audience will(2)..... most.

The most important thing is to practice. Read your report out loud. If it is long, examine it carefully to realize how(3)..... it shorter. Try changing the tone of your voice and the speed of your speaking. Next, read it to a small group of friends. Ask them to(4)..... what they think you can do to make it better.

If you want to be successful, these are the(5)..... (you need to take whether you like it or not .

I watched your recent program and was interested to learn the results of the research you(6)..... . I was particularly interested in your findings about the increased use of computers and the decrease in book reading. The fact that more young people are using computers(7)..... hardly surprising. The(8)..... of the World Wide Web has meant that we can now obtain a wealth of information quickly and easily without leaving our homes. This technological device is very valuable to students and should, of course,(9)..... . Computers can also be used for easy, cheap communication across the world, which has been of much use to millions and brought(10)..... . However, there are reasons why computers can never take the place of books.
