Many people believe that the Spanish painter Pablo Picasso (1881-1973) was(76)..... creative and influential artist of the 20th century. From a very young age, Picasso was (77)..... skillful at drawing and painting. His restless personality led him to paint in many different styles. One style was his "blue period" of painting,(78)..... he concentrated on blue as the main color for his pictures. In 1907, Picasso painted a picture called Les Femmes d'Alger,(79)..... shocked many people _ it was a painting of human figures represented by angular and distorted(80)..... . This led to a style of painting called cubism.

Dinosaurs became extinct about 65 million years ago at the end of the Cretaceous period. About 70% of all animal life on earth died out. Scientists call it a mass extinction – it wasn't the first mass extinction in earth's history, and it (81)..... won't be the last! Having(82)..... for 165 million years, why did dinosaurs die out? There are many different theories about why this(83)..... . We will probably never find out why, which means that scientists will continue to disagree and come up with different dinosaur extinction theories. According to one of the theories, now and again, the earth cools into periods(84)..... we call ice ages. As dinosaurs were thought to be cold-blooded, it would have been hard (85)..... under such cold conditions.

Leisure, or free time, is time spent away from business, work, and household duties. It does not actually include time(121)..... on necessary activities such as sleeping and, where it is a must, e.g. education.

The distinction or difference between leisure and unavoidable activities is not a rigidly defined one; for example, people sometimes do work-related(122)..... for fun as well as for long-term utility. There is also a distinction between free time and leisure. For example, Situationist International states that free time is rarely free; economic and social forces(123)..... free time from the individual and sell it back to them as a product known as "leisure".(124)..... most people's leisure activities are not a completely free choice, and may be limited by social(125).....; for example, people may be forced to spend time gardening by the need to copy the standard of neighboring gardens.
