A dictionary is a book which explains the meanings of words and expressions. You can find words easily because dictionaries put them in (172) order. The word 'dictionary' comes from the Latin 'dictio' ('saying'). There are several types of dictionaries. Dictionaries (173) explain words and how they are used; dictionaries which (174) words from one language to another; dictionaries of biography which tell about (175) people; and technical dictionaries which explain the meaning of technical words.

- |                      |             |                 |              |

| 173. a. who          | b. whom     | c. they         | d. which     |
| 174. a. translate    | b. describe | c. explain      | d. expand    |
| 175. a. ordinary     | b. famous   | c. original     | d. common    |

A dictionary is a book which explains the meanings of words and expressions. There are several types of dictionaries --176-- general dictionaries, Learner's dictionaries , picture dictionaries ,etc. Dictionaries which explain what words mean give a --177-- definition of them. A good dictionary also gives more information about words. For --178-- , it explains how they are pronounced. Usually the International Phonetic Alphabet is used for this --179-- .

- |                     |            |              |                |

combination _ strong _ natural _ heavy _ understanding _ collocation _ meaningless

Collocation is the way words work together to sound --180-- in a particular context. For example we might say "The typhoon brought heavy rain and strong winds", but we wouldn't say that is brought "--181--rain" or "--182-- winds". Those --183-- do not collocate . Getting collocations "wrong" may not prevent people from --184-- your text but it can often make --185-- precise and may sound odd. Choosing the right --186-- will enable you to express yourself more precisely and will draw attention to where it should be.

متون زیر را با دقت خوانده و سپس پاسخ دهید.

Passage 1:

Teachers are an essential part of our lives. They teach us life lessons and help us discover who we are and how to succeed.

It's important to appreciate the teachers who are dedicated to their jobs. Even if you feel, you have too much homework and too many exams, take a moment to think how important your teachers are. Without them you wouldn't be where you are today.

Teaching requires a lot of time, preparation and effort. Outside of the class, teachers write lesson plans, create exams and grade tests. They also attend conference and training sessions to find tools and ways to help students succeed.

This article has shown you how your teachers are busy with a wide variety of responsibilities. The next time that you see your teachers, tell them you appreciate their help.

187. What do teachers do to find tools and ways to help their students become successful?

188. What does teaching need?

189. The underlined word in line 5 refers to ----- .

a) tools      b) teachers      c) students      d) exams

True or False?

190. The only things that students learn at school is reading and writing.

a. true      b. false

191. Teachers aren't just busy when they are at school.

a. true      b. false

Passage 2:

It was a winter morning and the students were listening happily to their lovely teacher at an elementary school in Shaft when suddenly the heater of the class caught fire. The fire was everywhere very quickly and the dedicated teacher, who had felt the danger, tried to rescue each child by holding them one by one in his arms and taking them out. But a severe wind shut the door of the class, and the flames of the fire raged so high that he couldn't get out of it.

Finally, although he could save his students' lives, unfortunately, he was so badly injured during the fire that physicians couldn't help him. Hassan Omidzadeh, the distinguished teacher, died in a hospital in Fooman, in 2012, at age 58 (15 years after the fire) as a result of the burns and injuries that he received from the fire.

This event was the hot news for many years. People were talking about Hassan's brave act everywhere. Hassan died because of his love for his students. Instinct of survival makes every human being prefer to survive and escape the danger, but Hassan Omidzadeh did what not many people could ever think of at the moment of danger.

His name along with other heroes of our homeland like Muhammad Hussein Fahmideh and Riz Ali Khajavi is listed in school textbooks.

True / False

192. Suddenly, one of the class who was lazy students set the fire.

193. A strong wind closed the door of the class when teacher was inside.

194. At the end all of the students and the teacher were well and healthy.

195. How did the teacher rescue his students?

196. What was the real reason of the teacher's death?

Passage 3:

Nutrition is the process by which plants and animals take in and use food. Food is needed to keep the body running smoothly. It provides energy for work and play, for breathing , and for the beating of the heart. The building material for muscles , bones, and blood comes from food . You can't have a healthy body without healthy eating and drinking. Not enough of some foods, or too much of others , can lead to illness.

The food and drink you take in are called your diet. (This word is sometimes used in another way, to mean eating less food than normal in order to lose weight, as in "going on a diet").

A person's diet is so important because growth and health depend on it. Dieticians are people with knowledge of special diets (dietetics), such as those used for sick people in hospital.

We should never forget that across the world between 13 and 18 million people die each year from starvation and the diseases it brings; most of them are babies and young children. For the millions more who suffer from lack of food (not enough of the right foods), healthy eating is out of the question. It is hard enough just to try and stay alive.

197. How can we have a healthy body?

198. On the whole, the writer believes that by eating less food we can----- .

- a. grow our health      b. lose weight      c. gain weight      d. decrease our health

199. What does 'it' in line 2 refer to?

- a. food      b. body      c. process      d. nutrition

200. The word "special" in line 3 can be replaced by?

- a. perfect      b. patient      c. particular      d. protected

201. The word "diet" has two meanings, what we eat and eating less food than normal. T/F

Passage 4:

How to use a dictionary

A dictionary is a very important tool for anyone who is learning a new language. With a good one you can do the following; you can look up the meaning of an English word you see or hear; to find a word quickly, you need to know the English alphabet perfectly. For words with more than one meaning you should choose one that makes more sense in the context; checking the spelling and pronunciation are other facilities that a dictionary offers. Also to check the plural of a noun, part of speech, or past tense of a verb, a dictionary is helpful. Likewise, a dictionary provides readers with synonyms or antonyms, collocations, and grammatical information about a word too. In sum, learning a new language is fun by the use of a dictionary.

202. What is a dictionary?

203. What can we check in a dictionary?

204. "one" in the line "2" refers to?

- a) language      b) tool      c) meaning      d) dictionary

205. Which one is closest meaning to "look up" in line "2"?

- a) listen      b) search for      c) write      d) figure out

True or False

206. Dictionary offers only one meaning for a word.      True      False

207. An important tool for learning a language is a dictionary.      True      False

There are many languages in the world, some of which may seem harder to learn for second or foreign learners. But which is the most difficult language to learn? Well, it's not easy to reply because there are many factors to discuss.

A native speaker of French, for example, will find English easier to learn than Chinese, because English is very similar to French, while Chinese is very different. As a result, first language can affect learning a second language. The greater the differences between the second language and the first, the harder it will be to learn. Many people answer that Chinese is the hardest language to learn, possibly influenced by the thought of learning the Chinese writing system. Besides, the pronunciation of Chinese does appear to be very difficult for many foreign learners. However, for Japanese speakers, who already use Chinese letters in their own language, learning writing will be less difficult than for speakers of languages using the Roman alphabet.

Teachers and the conditions in which the language is learned also play an important role, as well as each learner's motivation for learning. If people learn a language because they need to use it for a living, they often learn it faster than people who study a language that has no direct use in their day to day life.

Read the questions and choose the best choice.

208. The word "it" in paragraph 2 line 4 refers to.....

- a) learning first language
- b) second language
- c) difference of languages
- d) Chinese language

Passage 5:

209. Hardness of learning a language can depend on.....

- a) how different it is from one's mother tongue
- b) whether it is French or English
- c) whether you are learning Japanese or Chinese
- d) how long it takes to master pronunciation

True / False

210. Being familiar with writing system of the second language makes it harder to learn.

- a) True b) False

211. The reason behind learning a language can slow down or speed up learning.

- a) True b) False

Answer the following questions.

212. Which language is easier for French people to learn, English or Chinese? Why?

213. Why does a Japanese speaker find the Chinese writing system less difficult?

Passage 6:

Albert Einstein, a physicist, was born on March 14, 1879, in Germany. He could change people's understanding of the physical world, therefore, he has been considered as one of the greatest thinkers in science. After graduating in 1900, Einstein had a hard time finding a job. He finally got a job at the Swiss Patent Office in 1902. This job gave him the time to do some of his important works like writing theoretic papers on physics, especially his Theory of Relativity.

He became a professor at the German University in Prague. He began working at the Prussian Academy of Sciences in Berlin in 1914, and soon finished his work on his General Theory of Relativity, which was published in 1916. Einstein was awarded the Nobel Prize for physics in 1921.

In 1933, he left Germany because of the strict rules of Hitler. He went to work at the Institute of Advanced Study at Princeton University in New Jersey. He later became a U.S citizen. During World War II, he wrote a letter to President Roosevelt expressing his worry about the atomic bomb.

After stopping his work in the institute in 1945, he spent much of his time giving lectures and speeches and working on theories. In his final years, he lost his health. He was hospitalized with stomach pains several times, and he died on April 18, 1955.

Choose the best answer.

214. Before the World War II, Einstein left Germany and became a/an.....

- a) president      b) American citizen      c) physicist      d) student

215. He died because of his .....

- a) Relativity Theory      b) scientific research      c) health problems      d) academic studies

True / False

216. His job helped him to think about his theory.      a) True      b) False

217. He found a job easily after graduation.      a) True      b) False

Answer the questions.

218. When was the Nobel Prize awarded to Einstein?

219. What did Einstein do for expressing his fear of the atomic bomb?

Passage7:

Respect is a way of acting well or thinking highly about something or someone. You respect those who are important to you. You show your respect by being polite and kind. When you are impolite or act badly toward people, they may feel sad or angry. But whom should you respect the most? You must care for those who always care for you. You know that your parents care for you for every little thing. You must love them, respect them, and care for them. Besides bringing you into the world, your parents spend their time, energy, and strength to make sure that you have what you need or want. Telling them that you thank them reflects the level of your respect for them. The easiest way to show your love and respect is to tell them that you appreciate who they are and what they do. You can also do something small but meaningful, for example, wash the dishes, clean the kitchen after dinner or clean the rooms. Your parents will pay attention to and appreciate your acts of kindness. You may also tell your mom how well she cooks, or tell your dad how great he is at his job. For most of parents, any of these small things can be a sign of respect.

True / False

220. We respect those who are important to us for some reasons.      a) True      b) False

221. If you are impolite or act badly toward people, they feel important.      a) True      b) False

Choose the best answer.

222. We show our .....by being polite to those we care for.
